Identifying, referring and managing spondyloarthritis NSAIDs Visual summary of NICE guidelines Spondyloarthritis can have Musculoskeletal Associated conditions Risk factors diverse symptoms and be symptoms Recent genitourinary Uveitis Psoriasis difficult to identify. The infection presence of these key Joint pain in fingers or toes Refer acute

* Ophthalmologists may refer people directly to a rheumatologist, after following the DUET algorithm (see http://dx.doi.org/10.1136/annrheumdis-2014-205358).

DMARDs

potential issues to be aware of © 2017 BMJ Publishing group Ltd.

DMARDs

using TNF alpha inhibitors

comorbidities

The production and distribution of this by NASS assessments every two years the contents

may be prone to fractures

Non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs

Disease-modifying

antirheumatic drugs